Refresher Course for NDT Level III : Clarification

ISNT Mumbai is going to conduct refresher course for NDT Level III examination in the methods given in schedule. Since candidates are having some common doubts, we try to clarify as follows:

ISNT Level III Examination:

- a) It is necessary to undergo training before taking the examination.
- b) Candidates, who have not been qualified by ISNT as NDT Level II in the method(s) need to take Level II practical examination in addition to Level III examination written examination. Therefore, candidates shall prepare accordingly for the practical examination.
- c) Candidates need to choose specific sector (s) for the method (s) they are appearing. It is possible to appear in more than one sector. Selection of at least one sector for examination is mandatory to get certified in method.
- d) Candidates shall meet the NDT working experience requirements and submit supporting documents.
- e) Those who appear for the first time need to take Basic examination also along with the method selected. Once Basic is cleared, candidate need to appear for method(s) only for adding to his qualification.
- f) NCB will be conducting the examination in accordance with IS 13805. NCB is a central certification Board of India. NCB examination is written examination conducted at the centre and not on-line examination.

ASNT Level III Examination:

- a) ASNT Level III examination is conducted by ASNT and is on-line examination.
- b) Candidates shall meet ASNT published eligibility requirements for attending the examination.
- c) Candidates can attend our refresher courses which may help them to prepare for the examination.
- d) Candidates shall do the needful for applying and processing the papers and required fee directly with ASNT.
- e) For those candidates appearing for Basic, SNT-TC-1A and CP-189 will be taught additionally.
- f) Since examination is on-line, candidates can attend our refresher course first and take the examination at their convenience.
- g) There is a centre for online examination of ASNT very near to our training school in Andheri, Mumbai. Also the programme is such that the participant can take ASNT examination just after the course.
