ANNOUNCEMENT
NDT LEVEL III REFRESHER/TRAINING COURSES AT MUMBAI, INDIA
February / March 2019

Dear All NDT Personnel

ISNT Mumbai Chapter is happy to announce a Training/Refresher courses for various NDT Method and Basic on public demand. The courses are scheduled in February / March 2019. The courses will be conducted only if sufficient registration is received well before the course schedule. On appropriate registration the dates will be confirmed.

These courses are unique blend for the requirement of certification examination by ISNT as well as ASNT.

Attending our courses will enhance your understanding of the subject as the coaching is by well experienced faculties. Mock up examinations (written) at the end of each method will help in preparing for the final examination. The participant has to indicate which examination he is attending.

ASNT Level III examinations have been made on-line and as such one can select the date suitable to individual. The information for registration and payment of fees to ASNT has to be obtained from the website of ASNT – www.asnt.org. There is a nearby our training centre, examination centre for ASNT is located in Andheri, Mumbai. The centres for online examination in Mumbai are listed as annexure I

ISNT Level III examination conducted by NCB will be at the end of each method course. The additional requirement for the examination is to select at least one of the two sectors for the method and also ISNT level II certificate or ISNT Level II practical examination. The fees for NCB examination are as per the Table 2 and is to be paid alongwith the course fee.

Refresher Course for NDT Level III : Clarification

AS th course is common for both ASNT and ISNT some candidates are having some common doubts, we try to clarify as follows:

ISNT Level III Examination:

- a) It is necessary to undergo training before taking the examination.
- b) Candidates, who have not been qualified by ISNT as NDT Level II in the method(s) need to take Level II practical examination in addition to Level III examination written examination. Therefore, candidates shall prepare accordingly for the practical examination.
- c) Candidates need to choose specific sector (s) for the method (s) they are appearing. It is possible to appear in more than one sector. Selection of at least one sector for examination is mandatory to get certified in method.
- d) Candidates shall meet the NDT working experience requirements and submit supporting documents.
- e) Those who appear for the first time need to take Basic examination also along with the method selected. Once Basic is cleared, candidate need to appear for method(s) only for adding to his qualification.
- f) NCB will be conducting the examination in accordance with IS 13805. NCB is a central certification Board of India. NCB examination is written examination conducted at the centre and not on-line examination.

ASNT Level III Examination:

- a) ASNT Level III examination is conducted by ASNT and is on-line examination.
- b) Candidates shall meet ASNT published eligibility requirements for attending the examination.
- c) Candidates can attend our refresher courses which may help them to prepare for the examination.
- d) Candidates shall do the needful for applying and processing the papers and required fee directly with ASNT.
- e) For those candidates appearing for Basic, SNT-TC-1A and CP-189 will be taught additionally.

- f) Since examination is on-line, candidates can attend our refresher course first and take the examination at their convenience.
- g) There is a centre for online examination of ASNT very near to our training school in Andheri, Mumbai. Also the programme is such that the participant can take ASNT examination just after the course.
